Death of Mr. Frank W. Fant.
Mrs. Frank W. Fant died rather suddenly at her residence in Newberry on Sunday morning at a week. She had not been well for several weeks but her death was not expected. Mrs. Fant was Miss Lizzie White, of Richmond, Ky., and we remember most pleasantly when she came to Newberry as a happy bride, as near as we remember in 1878, or about that time. She and Mr. Fant boarded at Mrs. Hunter's where we were also boarding and attending the college. Our acquaintance with her began at that time, and it is pleasant to recall those happy days as we chronicle the sad event of her death. She was a good woman, possessed of many noble traits of character and was foremost in all good works for the betterment of her fellowmen and women. She was an ardent worker in the cause of temperance and was an active and earnest member of the local temperance organizations. She was a consistent and faithful member of the Presbyterian church, ever prompt and regular in the discharge of her duty. She leaves a husband and one son to mourn her death. Interment was had yesterday at Rosemont, the funeral services being conducted from her late residence at 3 o'clock.

THE CULBREATH GOLD MINE.

Said to Have Struck It Rich—A Capital Idea Suggested.

Mr. J. A. Kirkland, who works at the Culbreath gold mine dropped in to see us last Monday, subscribed for the Sentinel and gave us quite an interesting account of the progress of the work at the mine. He said after the main shaft was sunk about 75 feet the water came in so fast that a powerful engine and pump have to be used to keep it dry. At that depth a tunnel has been dug fifty feet following the vein. They have now reached a joint where the grey rock and slate rock meet and have struck it rich. They are now digging a wedge shape tunnel from the surface to intersect the tunnel at the meeting point of rocks in order that the ore may be brought on a cable tram faster and more easily to the top. He says there is some talk of the company running a railway from the Newberry side and if they get it that far Saluda ought to run it on to the Court House and then they would be in touch with two great trunk lines. Capital idea!—Saluda Sentinel, 22nd.
